Free nonprofit training on volunteer recruitment and management set for June 27 in Logan County

LOGAN, W.Va. – The Pallottine Foundation of Huntington, in partnership with The Logan Healthcare Foundation and Volunteer West Virginia, will offer a free training for nonprofit organizations that focuses on volunteer recruitment and management Thursday, June 27 from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. at Chief Logan State Park Lodge, 1000 Conference Center Drive, Logan, WV.

The interactive training is designed to help nonprofits learn how to build, grow, and sustain a volunteer base. Topics will include how to create strong volunteer positions and recruit and retain volunteers. All attendees should be directly connected to a registered nonprofit organization.

Online registration is required at https://VolunteerLogan.eventbrite.com by June 17. Lunch will be provided, and space is limited. For more information, call the Pallottine Foundation of Huntington at 304-397-5955.

About the Pallottine Foundation of Huntington
The Pallottine Foundation of Huntington was established in 2018 following the sale of St. Mary's Medical Center to continue the Pallottine Missionary Sisters' legacy of caring for the spiritual, emotional and physical health of the community. The Foundation supports nonprofit organizations in 20 counties across West Virginia, Kentucky, and Ohio through the funding of projects and initiatives that focus on health and wellness, food insecurity, mental and behavioral health, substance use disorder, capacity building, and tobacco prevention and cessation.
