Teams joins Pallottine Foundation of Huntington as new Director of Finance and Operations

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – The Pallottine Foundation of Huntington welcomes Tracy Teams as its new Director of Finance and Operations. Teams brings with her over 17 years of financial expertise. She served as Health System Budget Manager for Marshall Health Network for 13 years and was instrumental in driving cost-containment strategies and enhancing operational efficiencies.

“Tracy has extensive experience managing operating and capital budgets,” said Laura Boone, CEO of the Pallottine Foundation of Huntington. “Her skills will help us maximize the impact of our resources and initiatives to ensure we are good stewards in the communities we serve. We are really excited she chose to join our team.”

Teams earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in accounting with a minor in economics from Marshall University. Beyond her professional achievements, she serves as Board Treasurer for Covenant School in Huntington and has been recognized for her community service by Generation Huntington, the Huntington Regional Chamber of Commerce, and United Way of the River Cities. She and her husband, Jon, live in Ona with their three children, Ashton, Ethan, and Amelia.

About the Pallottine Foundation of Huntington
The Pallottine Foundation of Huntington was established in 2018 following the sale of St. Mary’s Medical Center to continue the Pallottine Missionary Sisters’ legacy of caring for the spiritual, emotional and physical health of the community. The Foundation supports nonprofit organizations in 20 counties across West Virginia, Kentucky, and Ohio through the funding of projects and initiatives that focus on health and wellness, food insecurity, mental and behavioral health, substance use disorder, capacity building, and tobacco prevention and cessation.
