Nonprofits in Johnson County invited to learn about funding opportunity through the Pallottine Foundation

PAINTSVILLE, Ky. – The Pallottine Foundation of Huntington will host an informational meeting to connect with nonprofit organizations and community partners Thursday, Feb. 6 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at 444 Main Street in Paintsville. Attendees will learn about the Foundation and its Healthy Communities Initiative, which is accepting grant applications through Feb. 25, 2025.

The Healthy Communities Initiative provides funding to nonprofit organizations for health-focused projects that address the behavioral, emotional, physical, and spiritual needs of the community. The initiative also supports projects that improve a nonprofit's internal capacity to work effectively and develop strong finances, leadership, and infrastructure.

Lunch will be provided. Those who plan to attend should register by Jan. 31 at https://Intro-to-PFH-Johnson.eventbrite.com. For more information, call 304-397-5955.

About the Pallottine Foundation of Huntington
The Pallottine Foundation of Huntington was established in 2018 following the sale of St. Mary's Medical Center to continue the Pallottine Missionary Sisters' legacy of caring for the spiritual, emotional and physical health of the community. The Foundation supports nonprofit organizations in 20 counties across West Virginia, Kentucky, and Ohio through the funding of projects and initiatives that focus on health and wellness, food insecurity, mental and behavioral health, substance use disorder, capacity building, and tobacco prevention and cessation.
