Pallottine Foundation to offer free grant writing training for nonprofit organizations

PRESTONSBURG, Ky. – The Pallottine Foundation of Huntington will offer a free, in-person training for nonprofit organizations titled "Introduction to Nonprofit Grant Writing" Friday, Aug. 22 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Mountain Arts Center in Prestonsburg.

Alice Ruhnke, President of GrantStation, will provide expert advice on how to find grant opportunities and write effective grant applications. Participating organizations will receive a free, one-year membership to GrantStation.com, which includes grantmaker profiles, searchable databases of grantmakers, grantseeking tools, and tutorials. Attendees must be directly connected to a registered nonprofit organization to receive the membership.

Registration should be completed by Aug. 12 at https://GrantWritingFloyd.eventbrite.com. Attendance is limited to two people per organization. Lunch will be provided.

For more information, call the Pallottine Foundation of Huntington at 304-397-5955.

About the Pallottine Foundation of Huntington
The Pallottine Foundation of Huntington was established in 2018 following the sale of St. Mary's Medical Center to continue the Pallottine Missionary Sisters' legacy of caring for the spiritual, emotional and physical health of the community. The Foundation supports nonprofit organizations in 20 counties across West Virginia, Kentucky, and Ohio through the funding of projects and initiatives that focus on health and wellness, food insecurity, mental and behavioral health, substance use disorder, capacity building, and tobacco use prevention and cessation.
